A DAY WITH DAD

My name is Scarlet. I have a twin brother. His name is Clay. We are five years old.

It is Father's Day today. Clay and I are spending the whole day with Dad. Mom bought tickets to a baseball game. She bought us new shirts to wear. We are going to the game with Dad. We like going places with Dad. He is a lawyer and is very busy. We are happy that he can take us to the ball game. Dad likes baseball and we like it, too.

Clay and I like to eat hot dogs and popcorn at baseball games. Baseball is fun to watch. Clay and I also like to play baseball. Clay and I like to bat and run.

We are going to have fun at the game with Dad today. It is his special day.
